School Safety

CUPE National has a vaccine policy and you can read it here. All staff and members are encouraged to complete daily self-screening before attending any CUPE event, and to stay home if they are exhibiting symptoms related to COVID-19, or any other infectious disease, including the flu, common cold, respiratory syncytial virus (RSV), etc.

Masking and physical distancing of six feet is encouraged, but no longer mandatory.

In registering for this event, it is understood that you agree to comply with any protocols that may be established.

Meals

Please note any special dietary needs you have by using the on-line registration form.

Lunch, as well as morning and afternoon snacks will be provided by Wanuskewin.

The registration fee includes the following:

Morning snack – Monday to Thursday
Lunch (buffet style) – Monday to Wednesday
Afternoon snack – Monday to Wednesday

Scents and Fragrances

In response to the health concerns of our members and staff, CUPE has implemented a Scent-Free Policy at all of our workshops. Scented products such as hair spray, perfume and deodorant can trigger reactions such as respiratory distress and headaches. Facilitators and participants are asked to refrain from using scented products while attending our workshops and meetings. Thank you for your cooperation. Those failing to follow this policy may be removed from their class until they can comply.

Code of Conduct

All participants are advised that a high standard of trade union behaviour is expected of them. All forms of harassment are unacceptable. Incidents will be dealt with in a fair and quick fashion and in accordance with the CUPE Code of Conduct. The CUPE Education Representative has the right to send participants home without refund in the event of inappropriate behaviour.

General Information

All participants are expected to attend the opening and closing sessions.

Please do not book rooms or stay at the Heritage Inn, Saskatoon, as their workers (members of UFCW 1400) have been locked out by their employer for the past nine months (since September, 2023).

Solidarity with striking workers from other unions is very important to the labour movement.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

SESSION #1

HUMAN RIGHTS DAYS

*Drahomira Aujeska-Lewis,
CUPE Human Rights Representative*

*Tony Head,
CUPE National Representative*

*Rebecca Noble,
CUPE National Representative*

Here is another opportunity to learn more about our world, and the world of human rights.

This workshop will include perspectives beyond our backyards, starting with CUPE's new ARC 101 ("Anti-Racism CUPE") workshop, and the pilot of a new workshop that looks to understand Anti-Black Racism, and give unionists tools to defeat it.

Discussion of our union work within a global context ("Global People Power!") will be followed by work around .

Please join us to take your next steps for equality and human rights within our locals and our communities.

- ARC 101
- Anti-Black Racism (pilot)
- Global People Power
- UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples – 94 Calls to Action!
- Introduction to the Cree language.

SESSION #2

FUNDAMENTALS OF LABOUR LAW

Andrew Restall, CUPE Legal and Legislative Representative

Linda Dennis, CUPE Legal and Legislative Representative (Retired)

In this workshop, participants will learn the fundamentals of labour law as they apply to unionized workplaces in Saskatchewan

Topics will include what locals and activists need to know about The Saskatchewan Employment Act, the union and employer's duty to accommodate, and the duty of fair representation.

Law, case decisions, and other jurisprudence will be discussed and reviewed, so participants can begin to understand more deeply their roles in the union legal framework and landscape.

Pre-requisite: Introduction to Stewarding (available online, Parts I and II, or live)
